NEW YORK

Also known as The big apple, The bustling city of new York is a melting pot of cultures. People of all origins call New York their home and so New York is full of food from all over the world. The city plays an important role in the fashion industry which hosts the New York fashion show every year. Times Square is a must-visit for shoppers.

New York has many beautiful monuments and building one such is Rockefeller centre, the statue of liberty, the iconic wall street bull, The Madison square park, the world trade centre memorial. amidst all this one can not forget the lush green central park that sits right in the middle of town.

A visit to new York is incomplete without visiting the famous Brooklyn bridge which has also been a part of many successful films. The metro museum of art and museum of modern art plays an important role in developing and collecting works from various artists from all over the world.

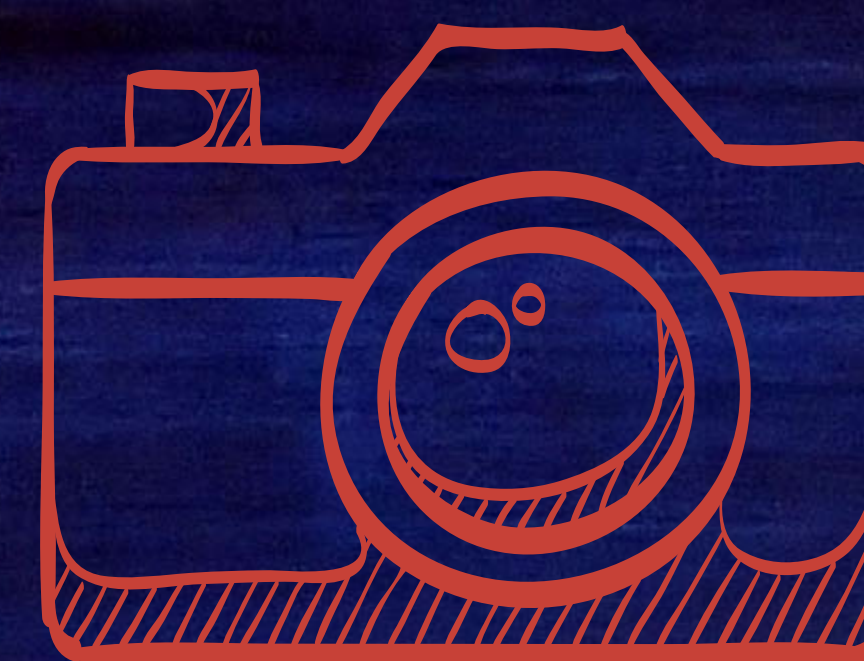

The skyline of the marvellous city is defined by tall towers like the empire state and Chrysler buildings. The skyline though keeps changing with time. They say you've Never lived in a city unless you have lived in New York.

DETROIT

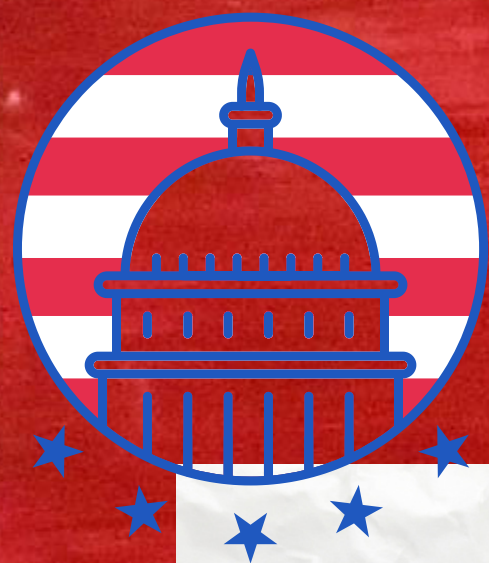

Not a very popular touristic destination but worth a visit because of the great lakes. There are a lot of things to do around Detroit. The Henry Ford museum of American innovation is a real treasure, it is dedicated to American life and ideas. There is so much to see that even a whole day is not enough to walk around this place. The museum was opened in 1933 by Henry ford itself. Another place worth visiting is the ford house where you can explore, the ford family estates. You can also visit the play house which was built for their daughter as her seventh birthday gift. The three bigs, GM Chrysler and Ford have their head quarters in Detroit. Detroit is also known as the motor city.

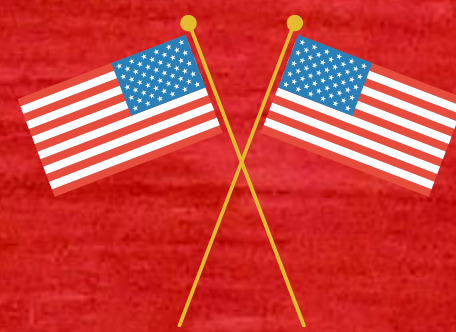

WASHINGTON

DC

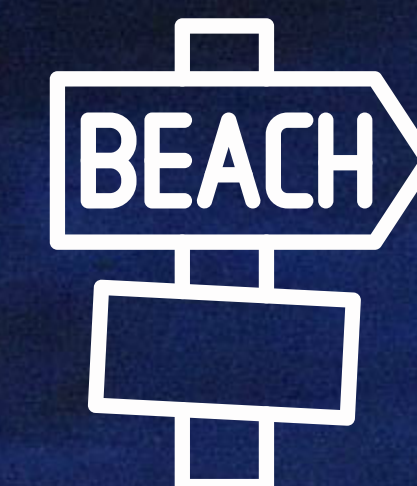

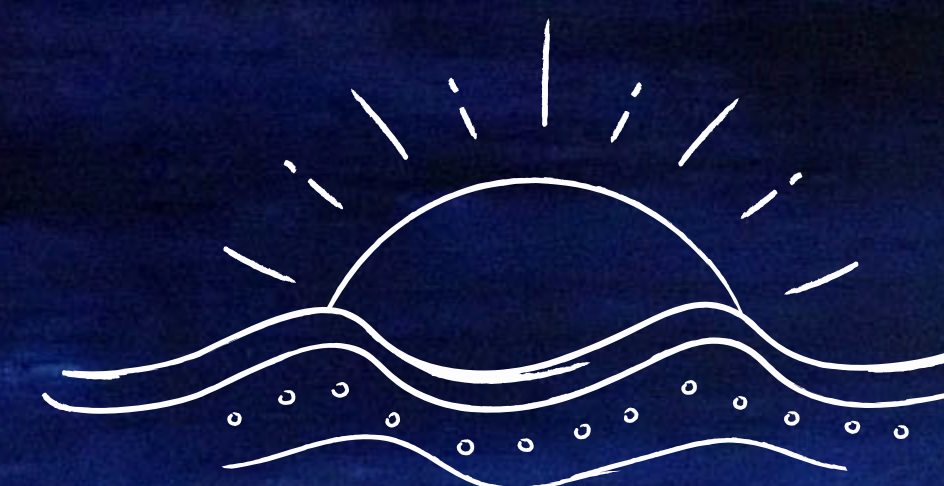

Named after George Washington, The first President of USA. The DC in Washington stands for the district of Columbia. When one thinks of Washington the first thing that comes to mind is the white house and the capitol hill building which houses the Senate, the house of representatives and the supreme court of the united states. For history and art enthusiasts, the museums in Washington are a must-visit. The National Museum of American history, Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History and Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum are just a few names worth visiting. Don't miss the iconic Lincoln memorial, which honours the 16th US president and the Washington monument which was built to commemorate George Washington should definitely be on your to do list for a visit to Washington DC. The list of memorials, monuments and parks goes on and one visit is not enough to cover it all.

ORLANDO

When you hear the name Orlando, the first thing that comes to mind is Disney land and universal studios. Orlando is home to many theme parks. The most famous ones are; Walt Disney world, universal studios. It is a must-visit city in USA for adventure junkies. Orlando is in the centre of the sunshine state of Florida and is also considered as the worlds most-visited family destination. The parks are as diverse as they are fun, these include water parks, nature parks and themed parks. But there is more to Orlando than just the parks, you can always indulge in the alternative activities such as air boating the everglades, visiting the NASA space centre or the safari nature trails. Another good thing about Orlando which many don't know is that you can reach the gulf of mexico or the Atlantic Ocean in under 2 hrs to enjoy the sun, sea and sand so for al the beach lovers, there are many amazing beaches around the city.
